

Bengal-Tiger's-Head Teapot-Cozy

When on safari there's nothing like a nice cup of tea to brighten the day. To make sure ours is piping hot we always take along a Bengal-Tiger's-Head Teapot-Cozy. Taken from a full grown cat, this outstanding article instantly speaks to your good field sense and fine taste.

Firstly, it keeps a large pot of tea quite warm for an awfully respectable amount of time. Secondly, in a pinch, it can be worn on your head and used as personal camouflage when stalking tigers in tall grass.

Each Bengal-Tiger's-Head Teapot-Cozy comes with a complimentary box of "Captain Niekerk's Fine Rooibos Tea"™ from South Africa.
